We at Marist

understand life to be a journey
We travel from one moment to the next

SEARCHING SHARING
LIVING TOGETHER

Time spent here has better enabled us to grow to know ourselves

And to move in hope to better the world.

We have been shaped by what we love
SELF—OTHERS—LIFE—

We have found a purpose in affirming our beliefs
In JESUS
and his Christian Community
And so we venture on . . .

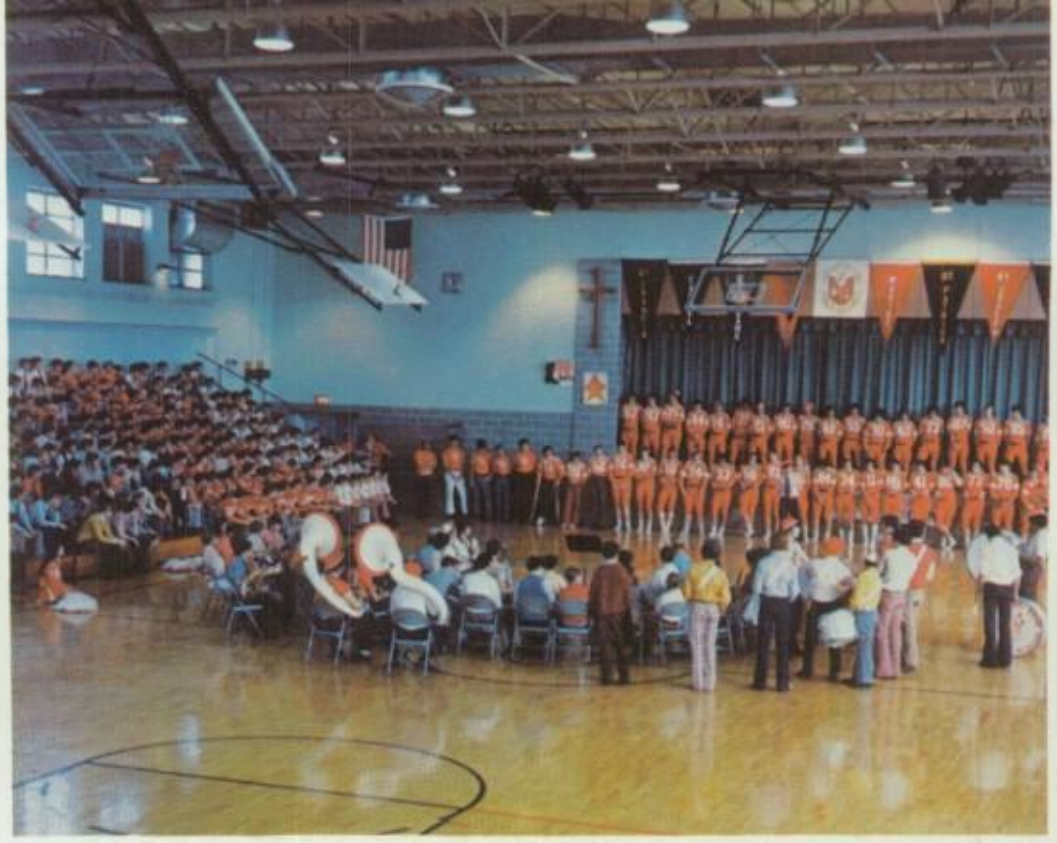
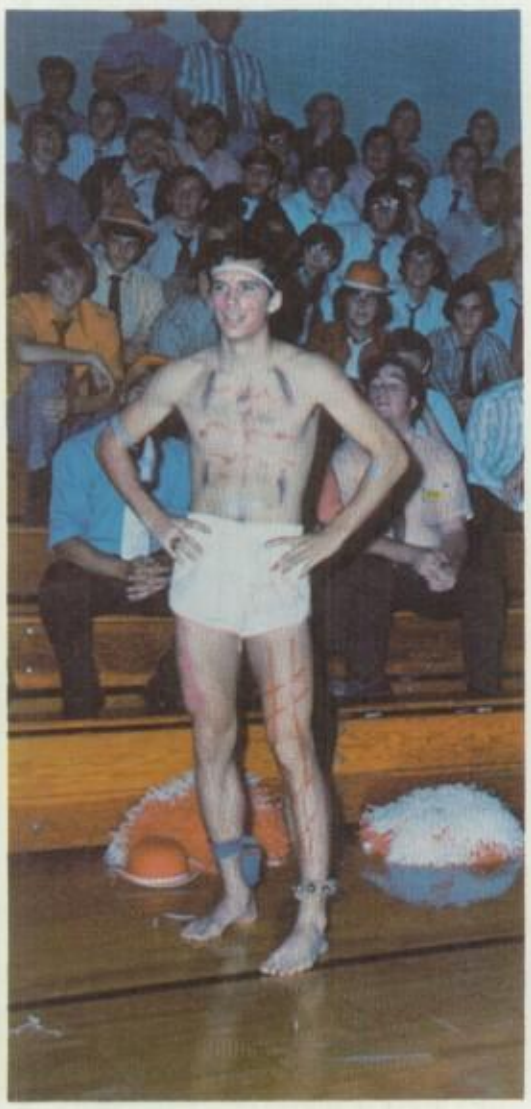
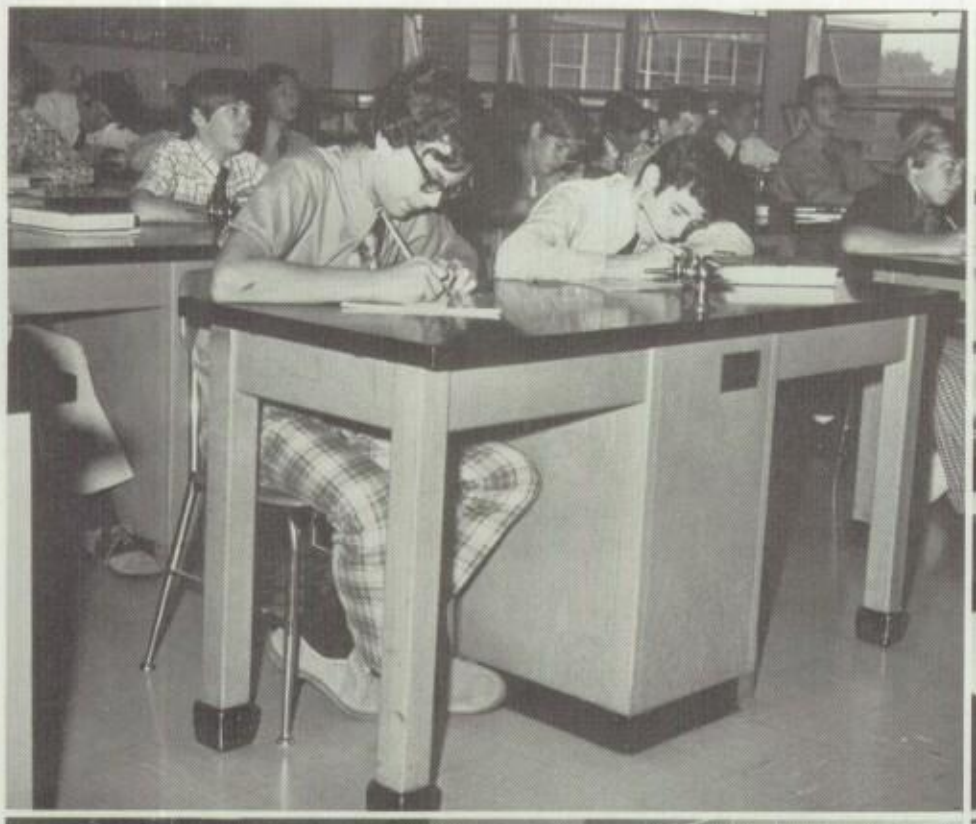
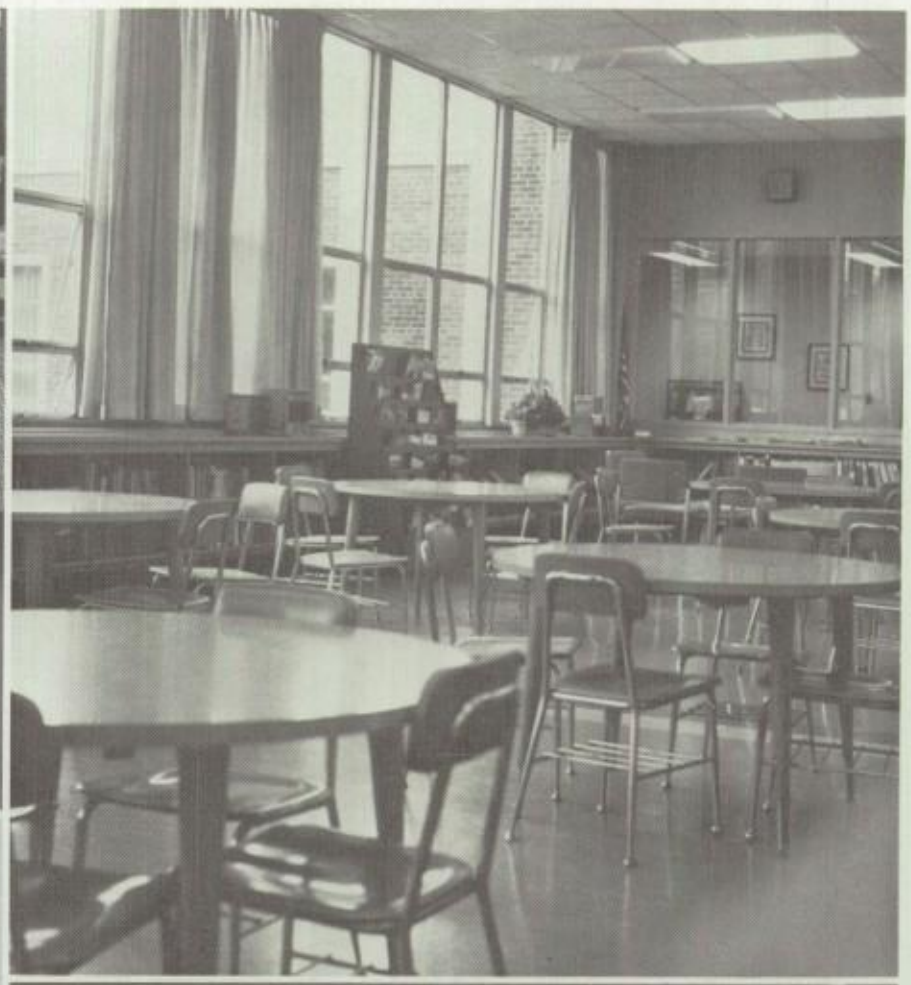
HOMECOMING

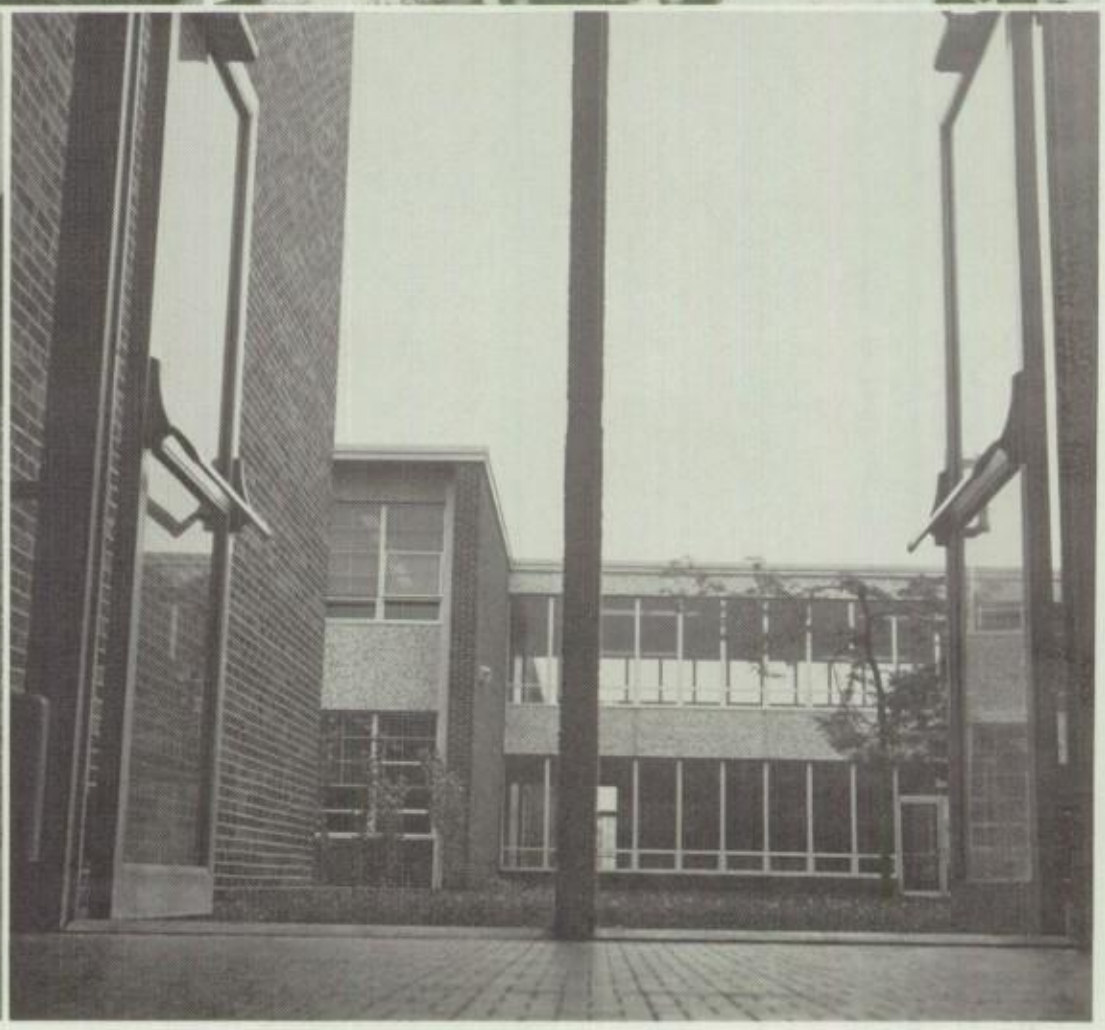


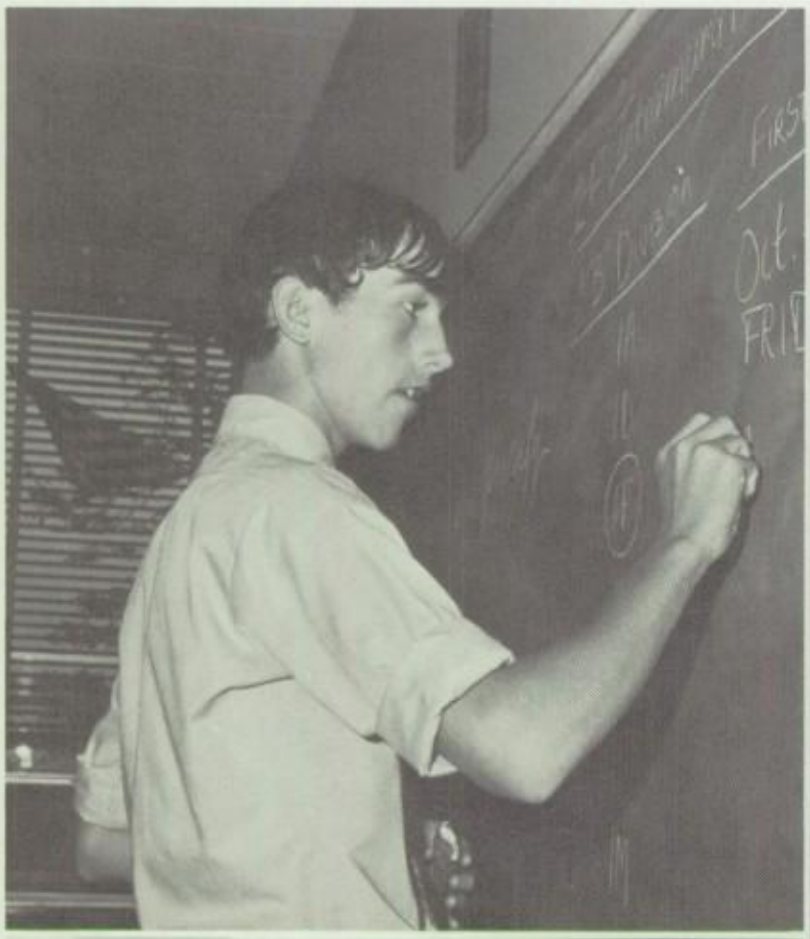


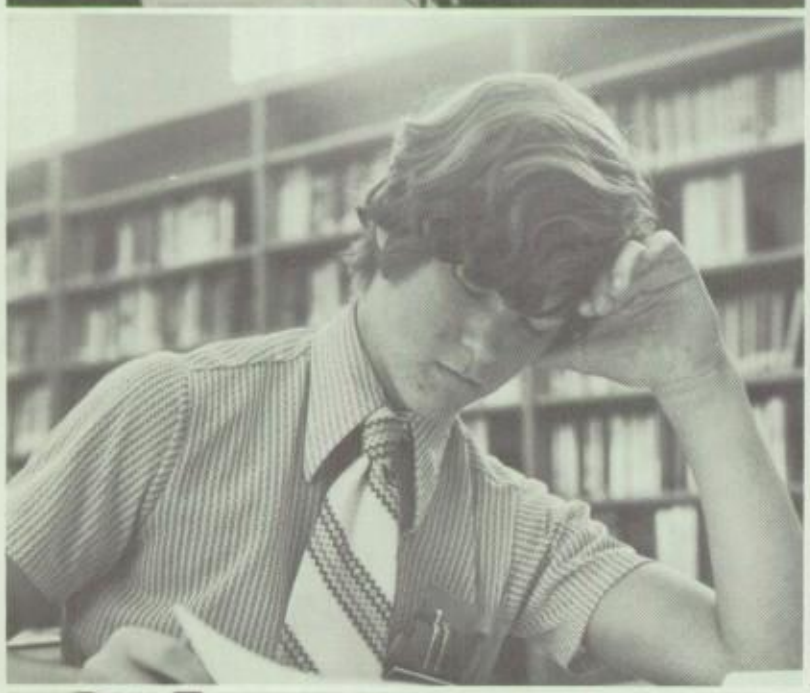
Jeff Graves and Queen Mary Keane

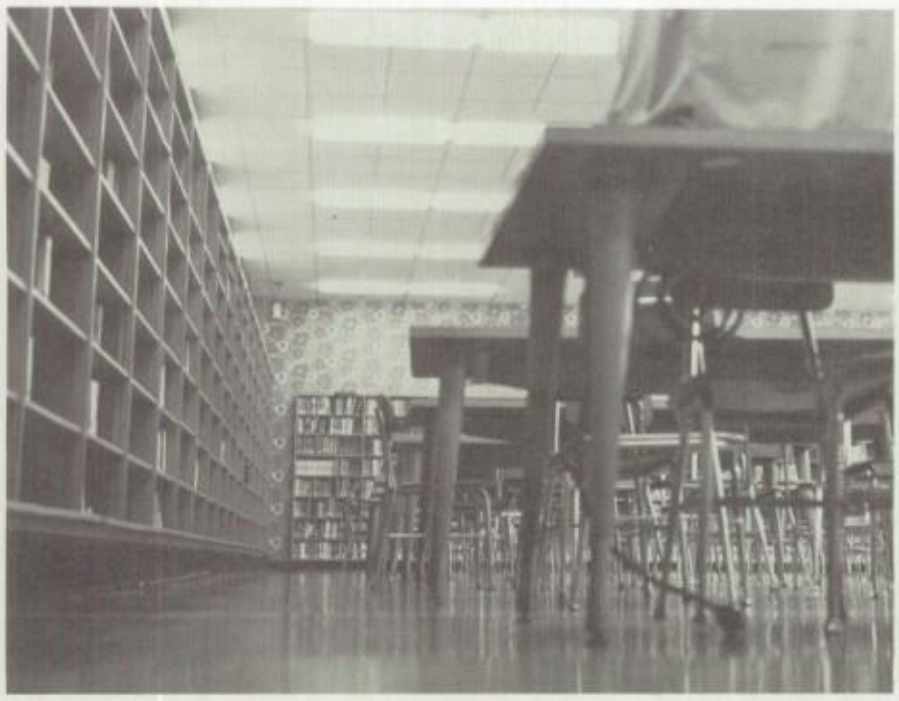




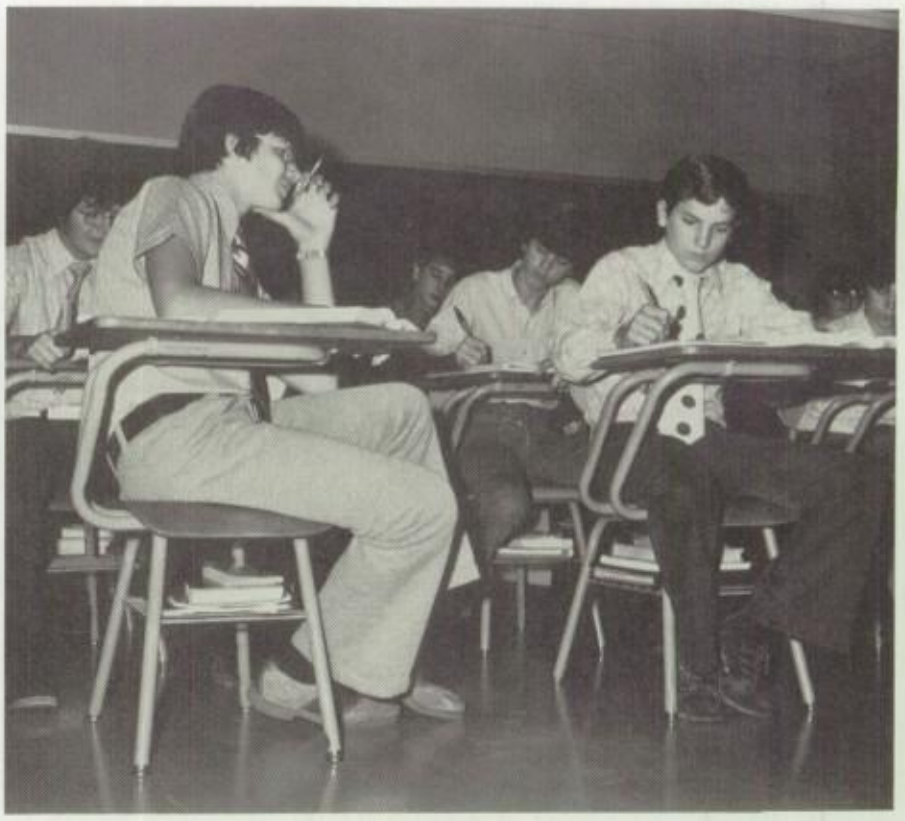








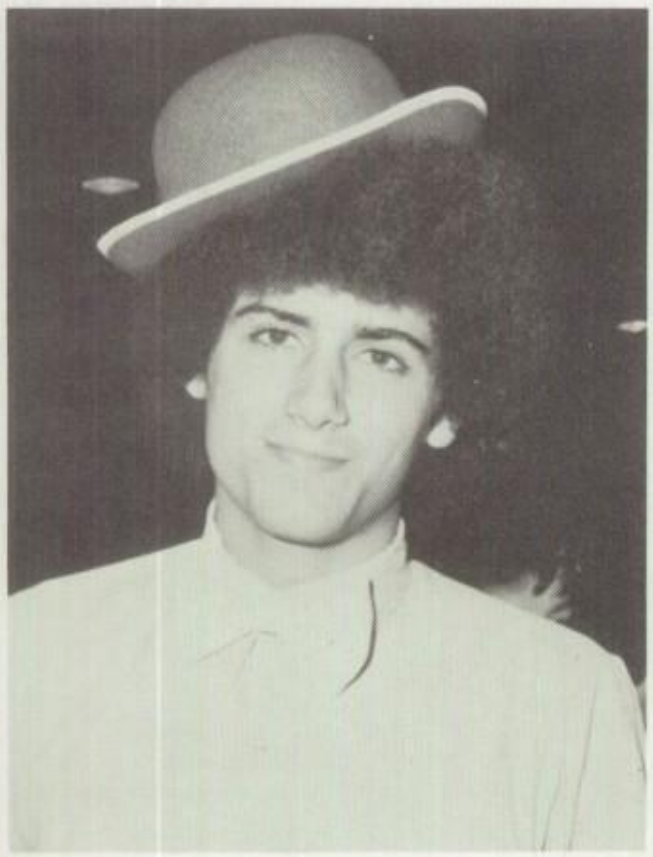
The library through the eyes of a freshman.



Pssst, number six.

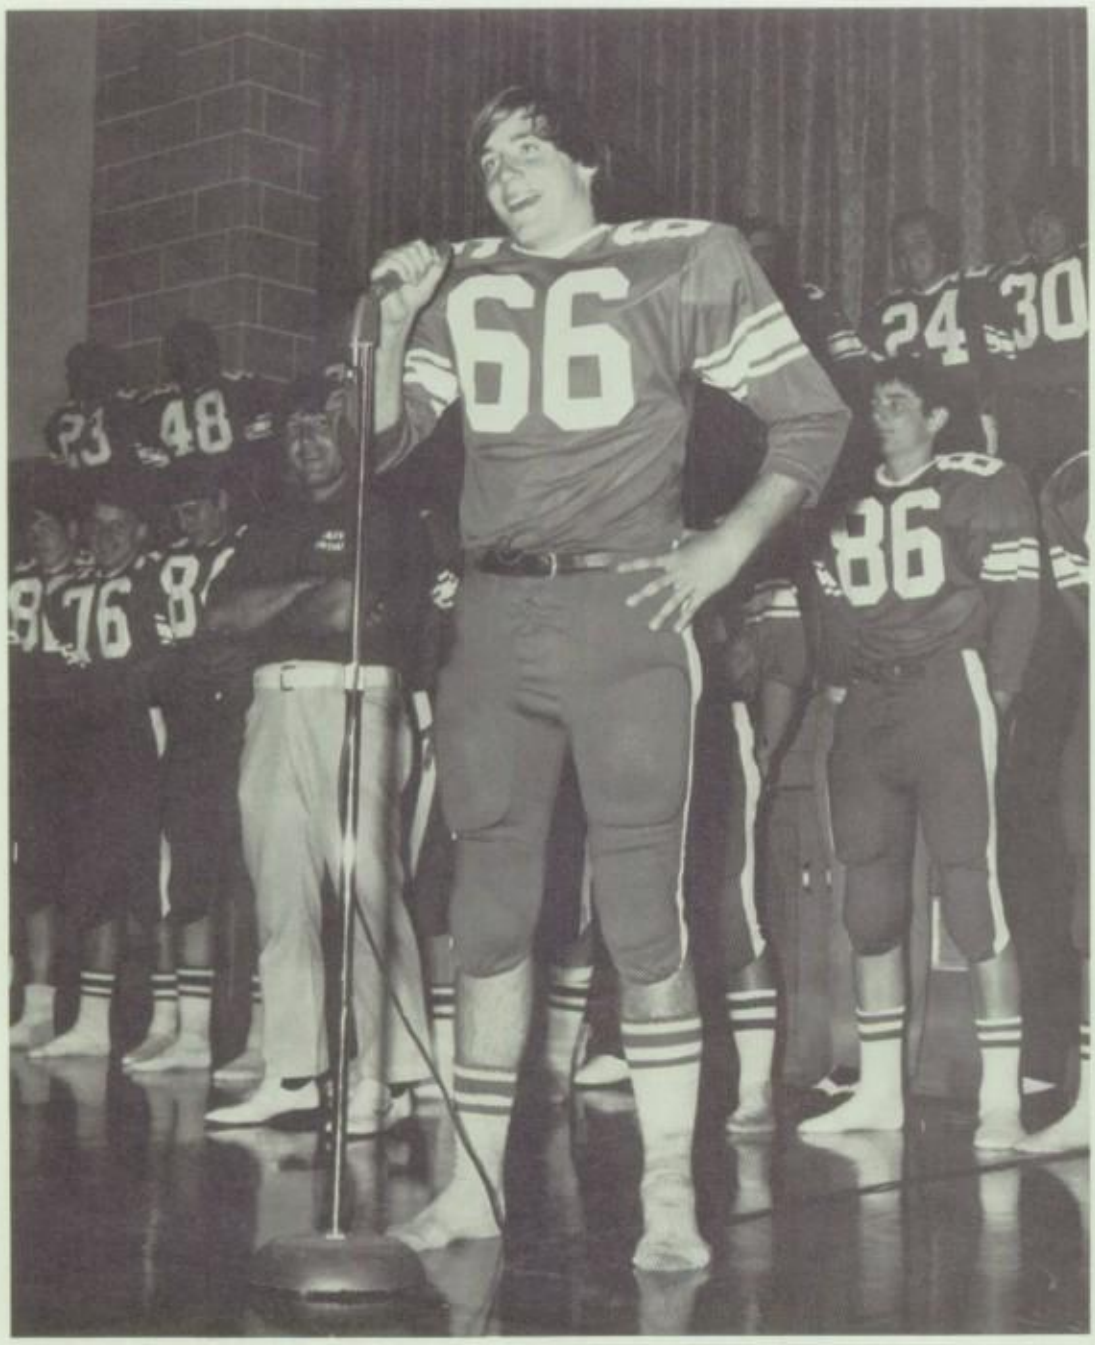
Rallies breed excitement.

An exciting moment at Marist.



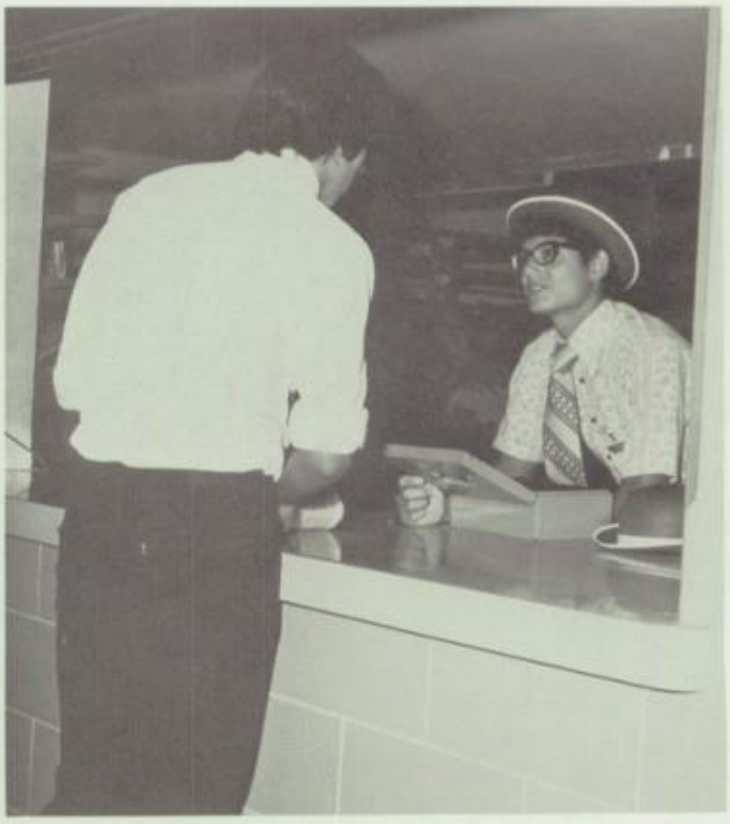
Say dude.

They said, "Try Marist, you'll like it."



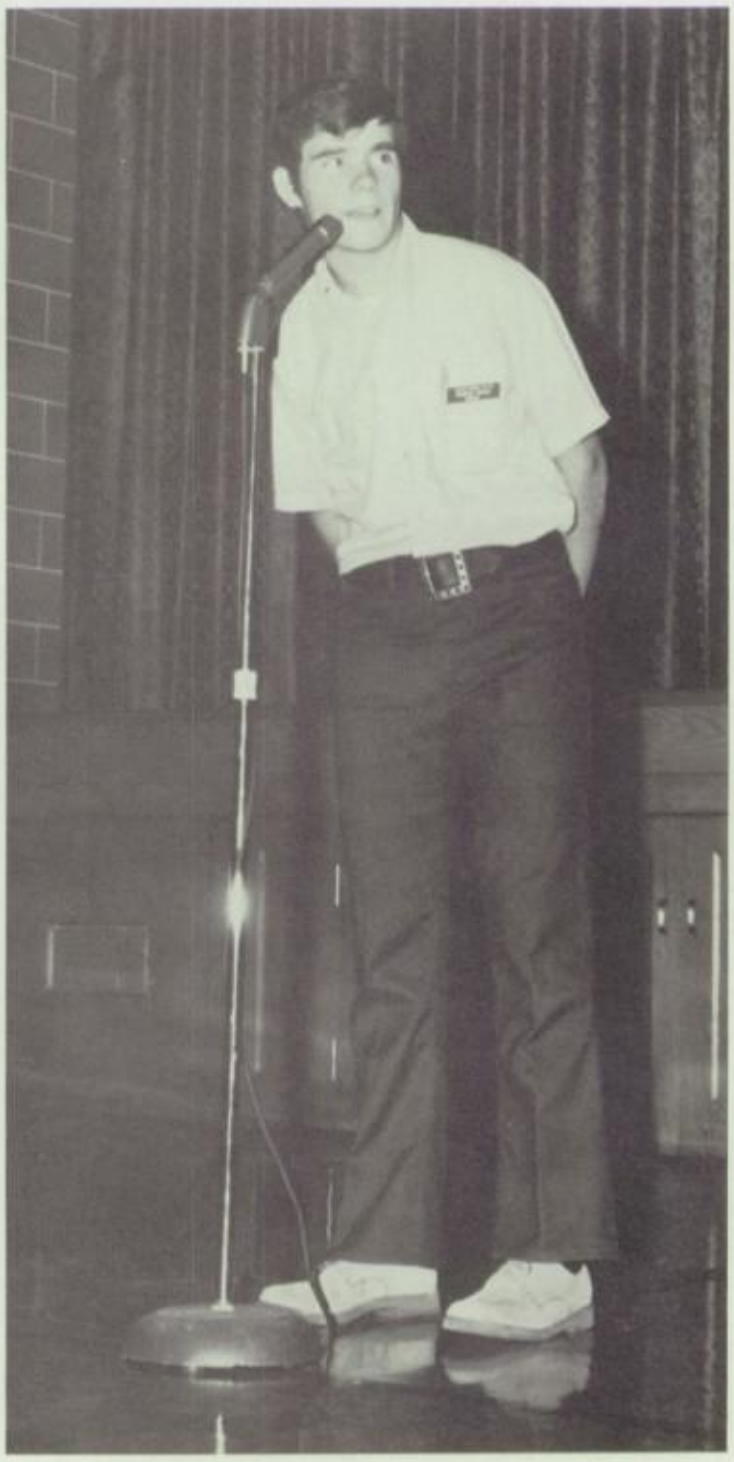
Well . . . huh . . . duh . . . well . . . then we're gonna get it on . . . then uh, well . . .

"Boylan"

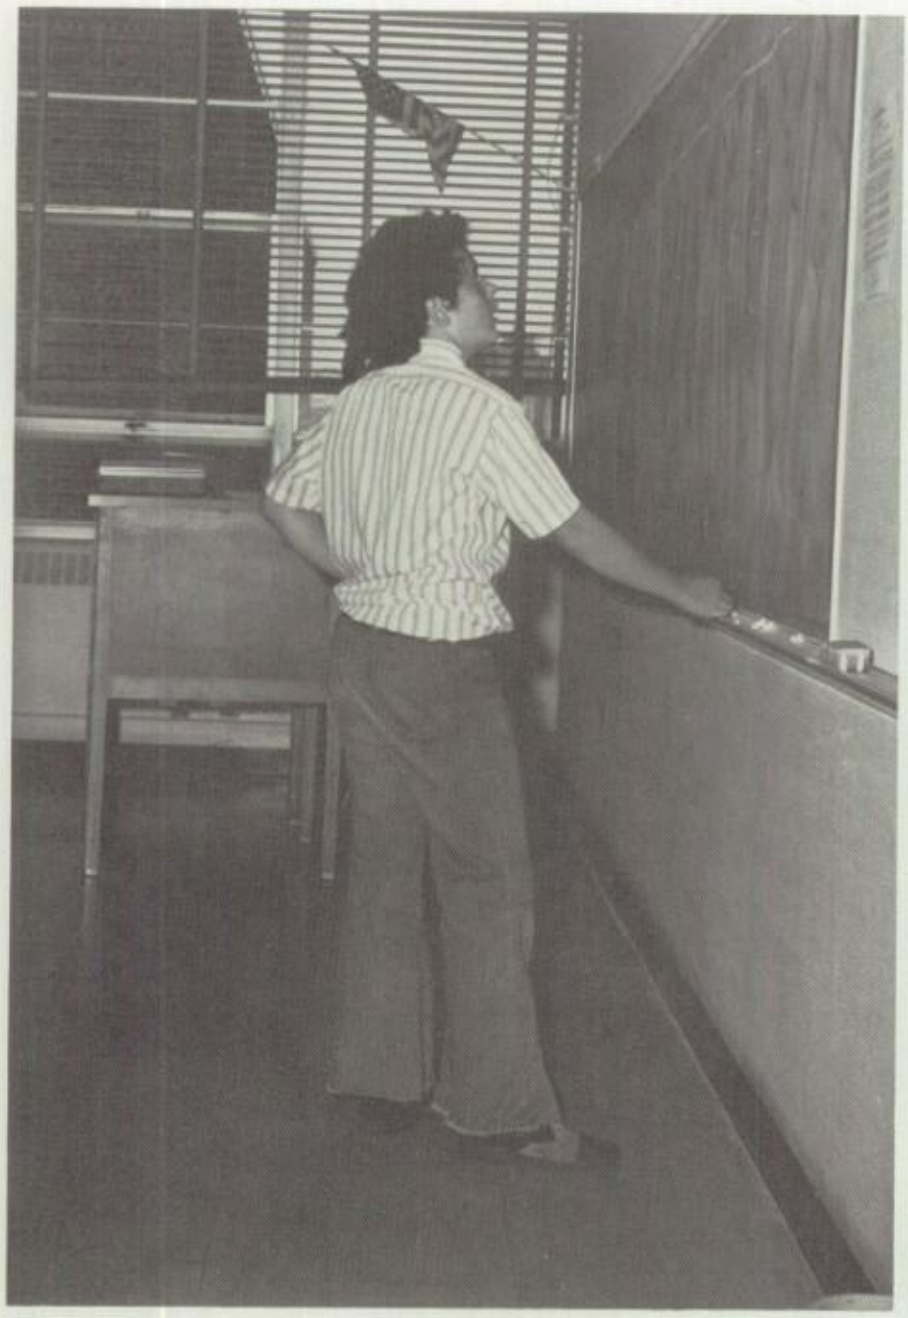


Five bucks on Lightning Bolt in the seventh.

Cut class again and we'll amputate!



"Will the seniors please put Bro. Sharpe down."



No Way!

Whadd-ya mean no girls allowed?

Your money or your activity booklet.

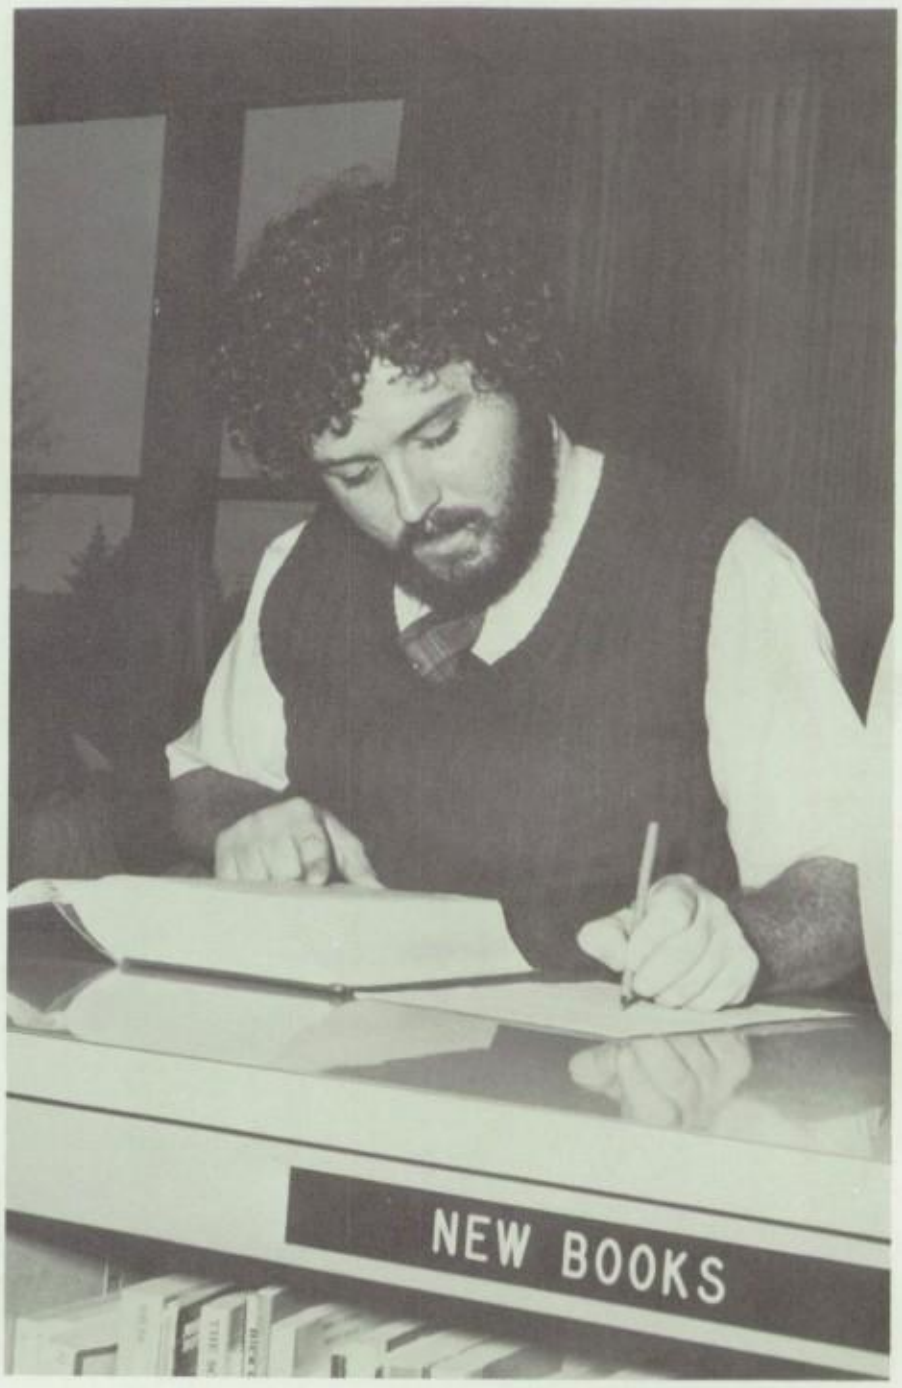
Let me make it perfectly clear.

Don't cry, I'll help you find it.

Tic-Tac-Toe, that's three in a row.

The quest for knowledge goes on.

A bird's eye view of Marist.



A hair raising experience.

TENTH ANNIVERSARY SCHOOL CELEBRATIONS

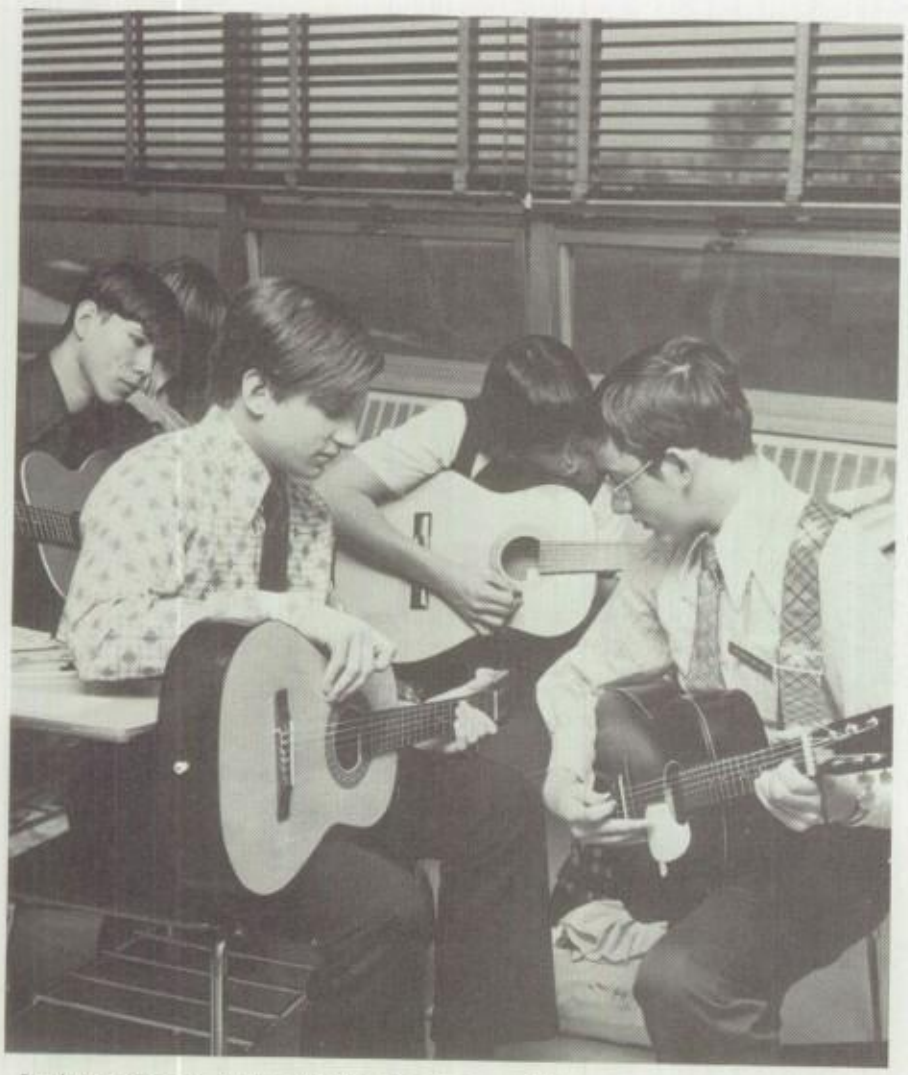
ENRICHMENT WEEK January 21-25

Br. John Malachy, Enrichment Week Co-Ordinator.

Br. Vincent Andiorio and Italian Cookery.



Freshman George Balling teaches beginning guitar.

Senior Bob Doe demonstrates golf.

Students venture to teach a newspaper course.

Aimed at giving the students at Marist experiences they normally do not encounter in the regular academic program, ENRICHMENT WEEK was introduced this year. Forty-four different courses were offered on an optional basis. Students swam the ocean bottom in Scuba Diving; became overwhelmed with the tastes of Italian Cookery; skied the Alpine slopes in the Introductory Ski Course. These plus many other experiences make next year a promising endeavor.

Mr. Balcarcel and the boxing course.

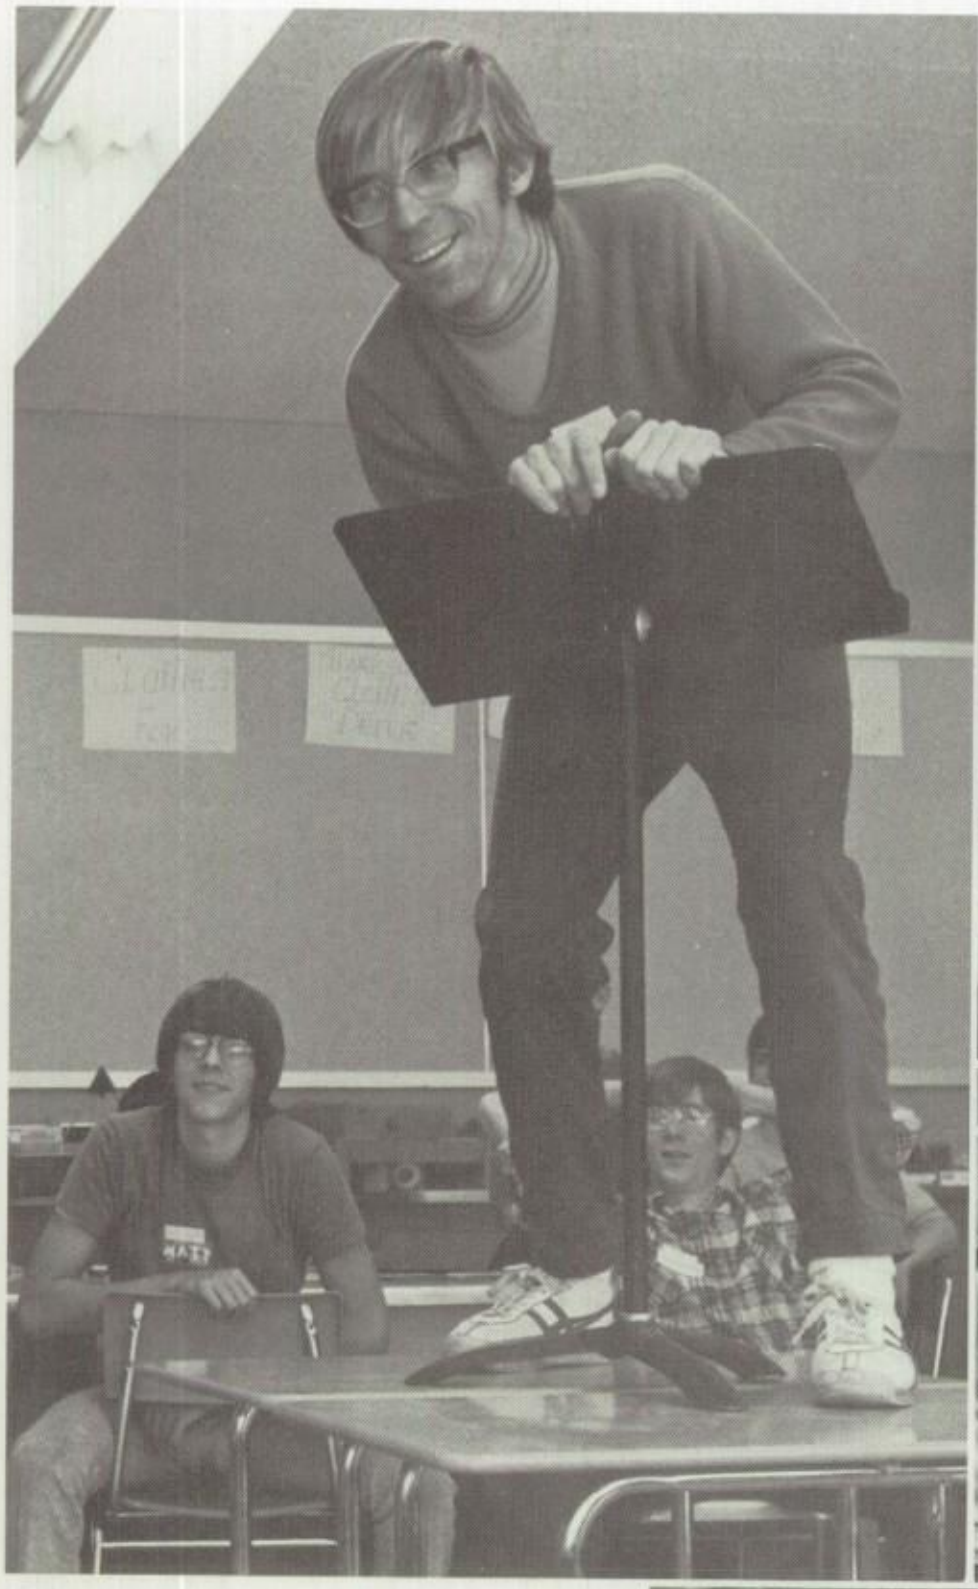
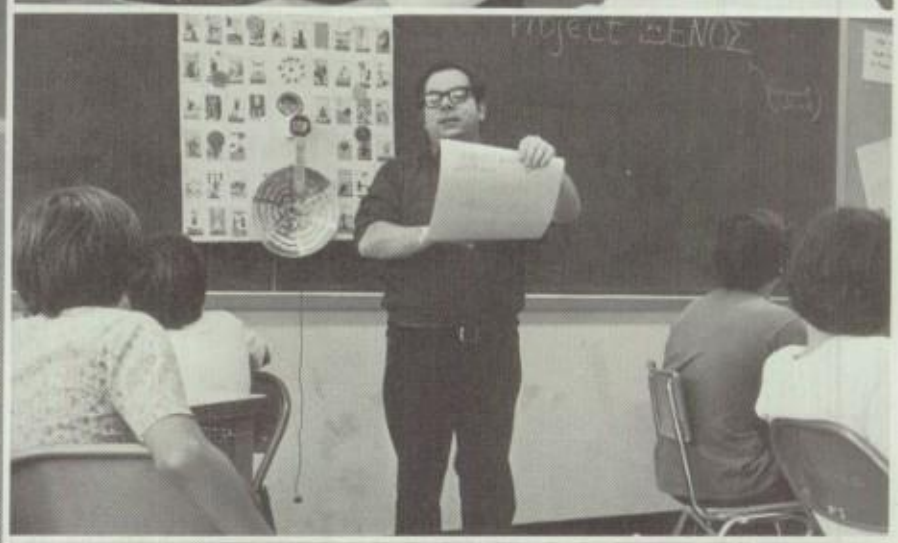
FRESHMEN WEEKENDS

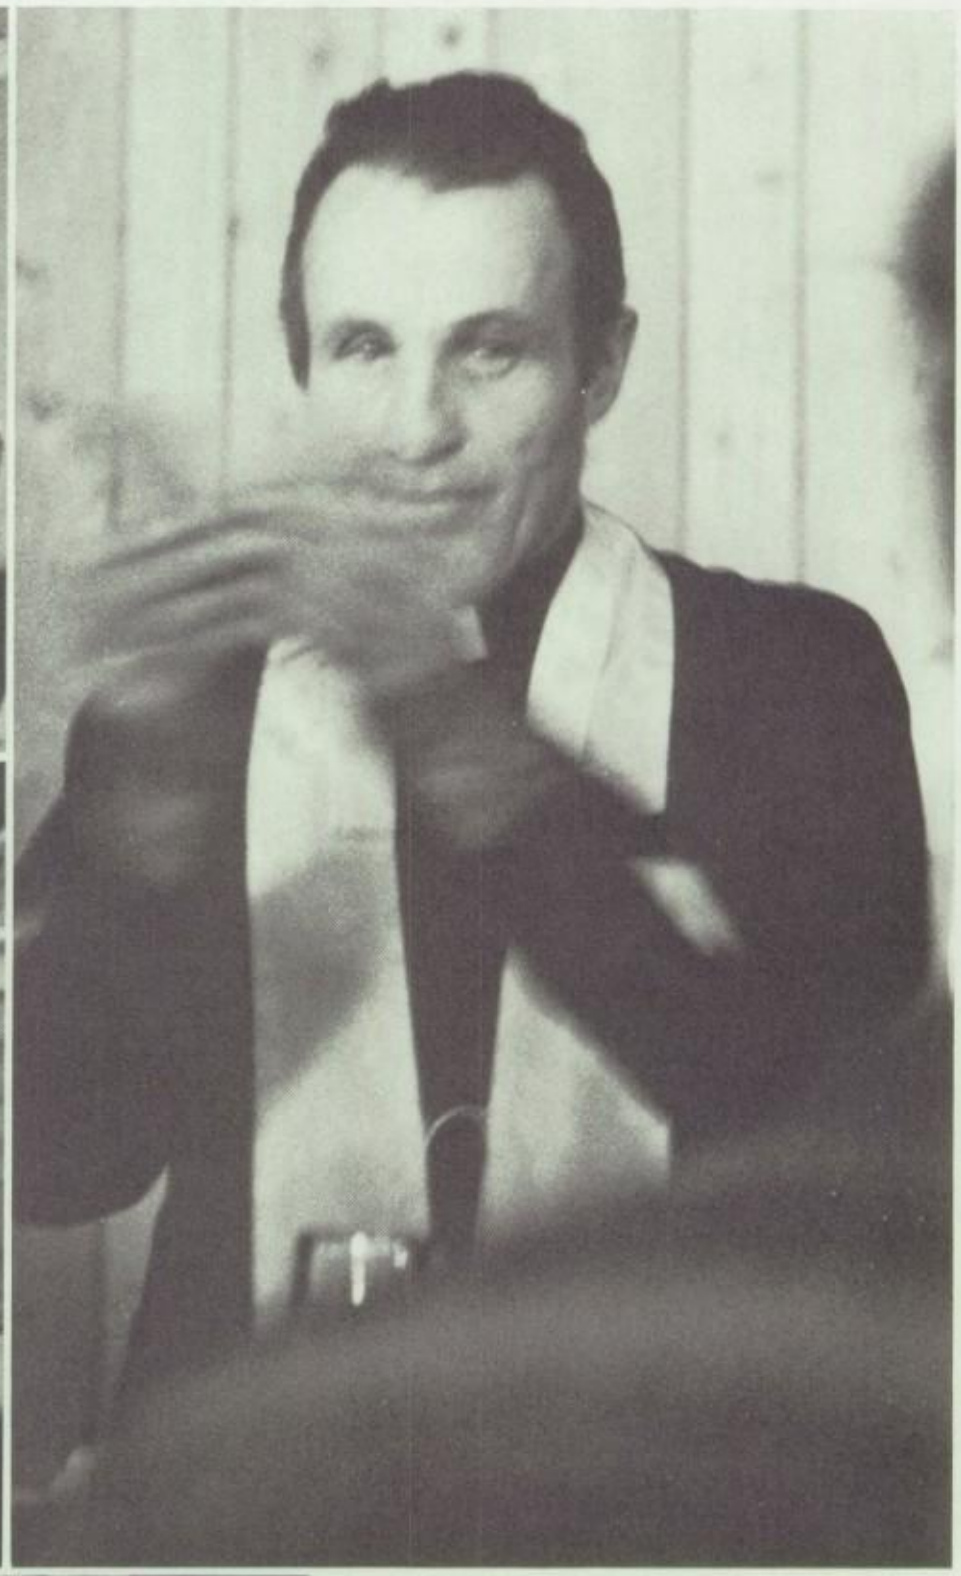




The Freshmen Retreat Program is designed to bring the freshmen together during a weekend at school in which the Spirit of Christian Community can not only be discussed but experienced.

The Retreat Program offered for the seniors is The T.E.C. experience, which brings the Seniors of Marist into contact with other seniors throughout Chicago and attempts to develop a sense of Christian living.

SOPHOMORE WEEKEND



During the sophomore weekend, an attempt to create a true Christian Community is made. The sophomores participate in such activities as: group discussions, talks, creative exercises, recreations, paraliturgies, prayer services and a liturgy. The retreats are away from the school in order to give the sophomore the proper atmosphere to "retreat" from his everyday experience and to reflect on what he is doing with his life.

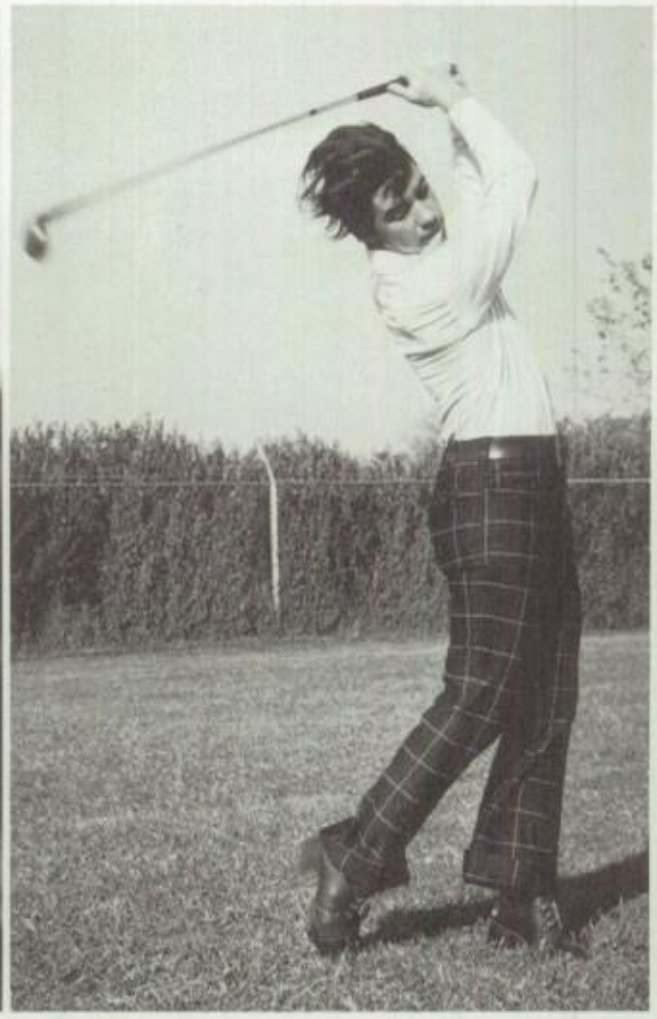
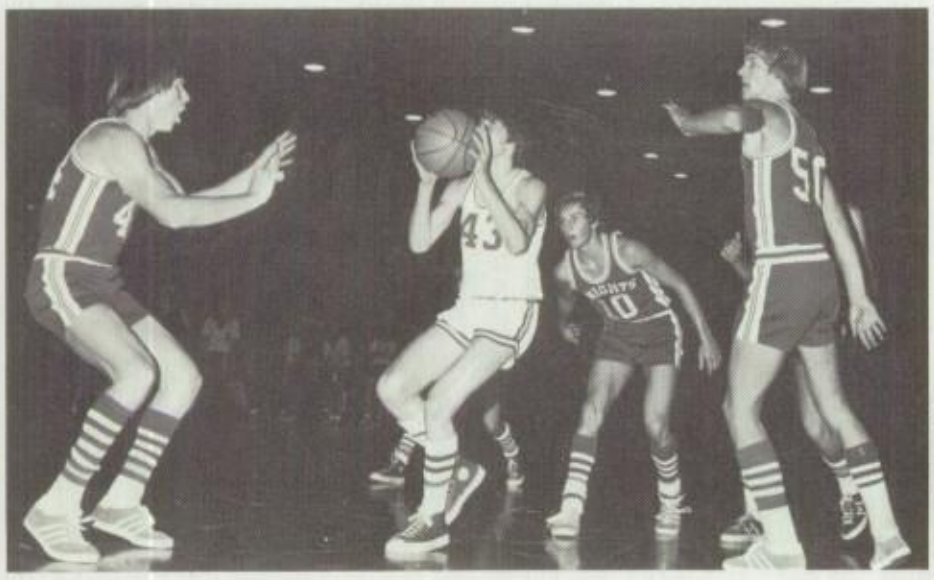
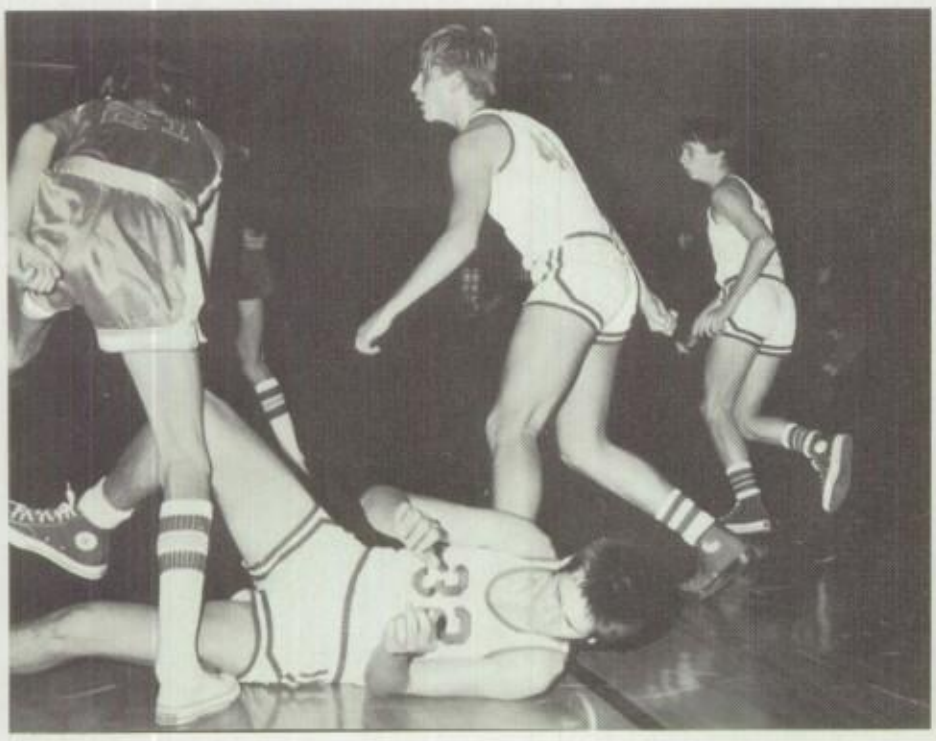
"Going once, Going twice . . ."



"OOPS, Missed."



"No, No, please don't"

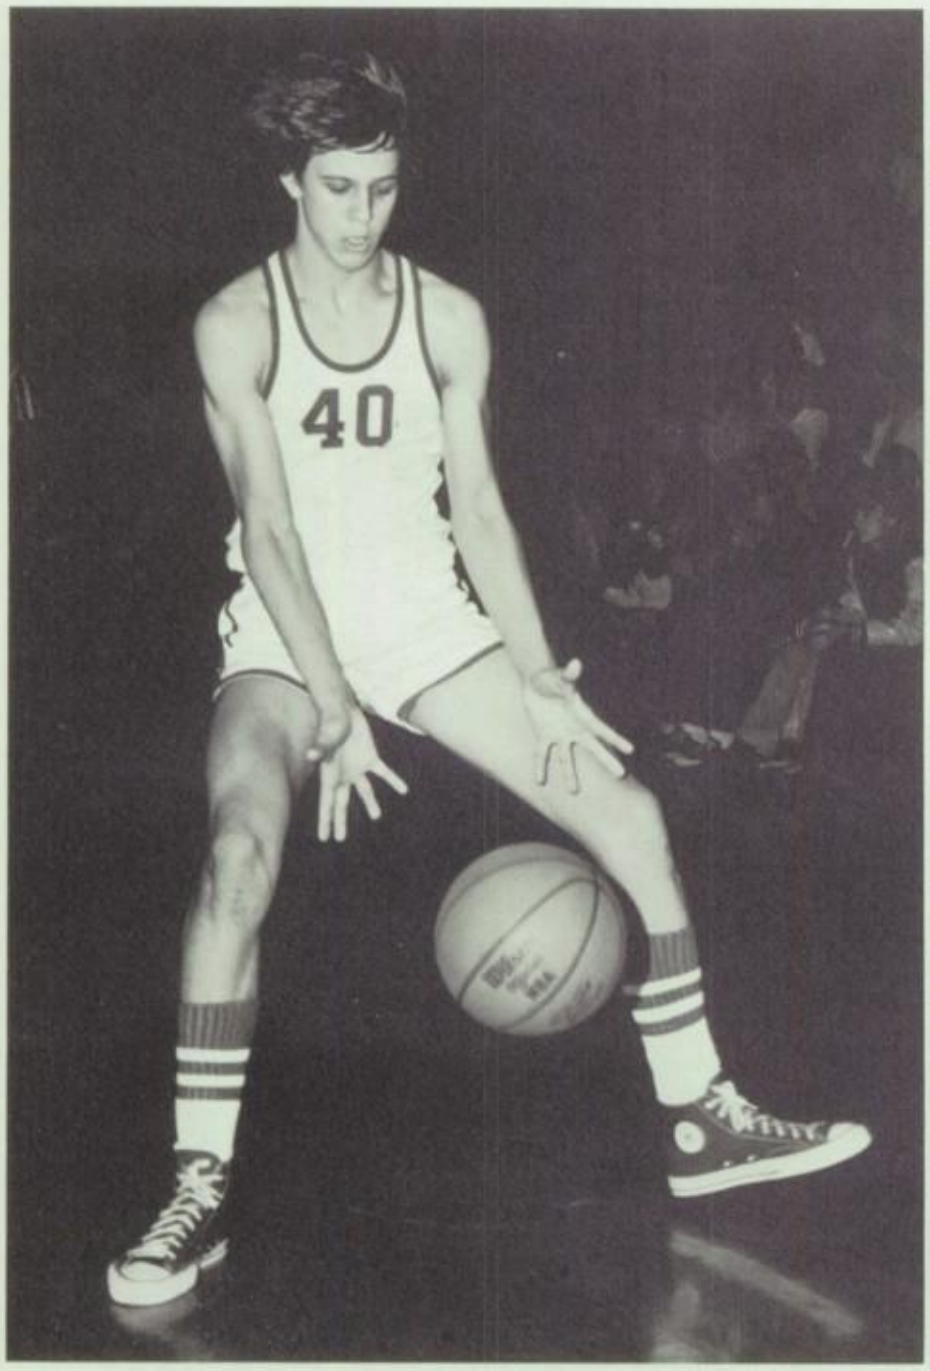


"Wow, I can see myself in this floor!"

"Quick! Run to Angie's and get me a pizza, I'm starved!"

"Come on, I'm open!"

"Oh it'll never work."



"See ya later sucker!"

"Come to papa"

"I've heard of Turkish Baths, but this is ridiculous!"

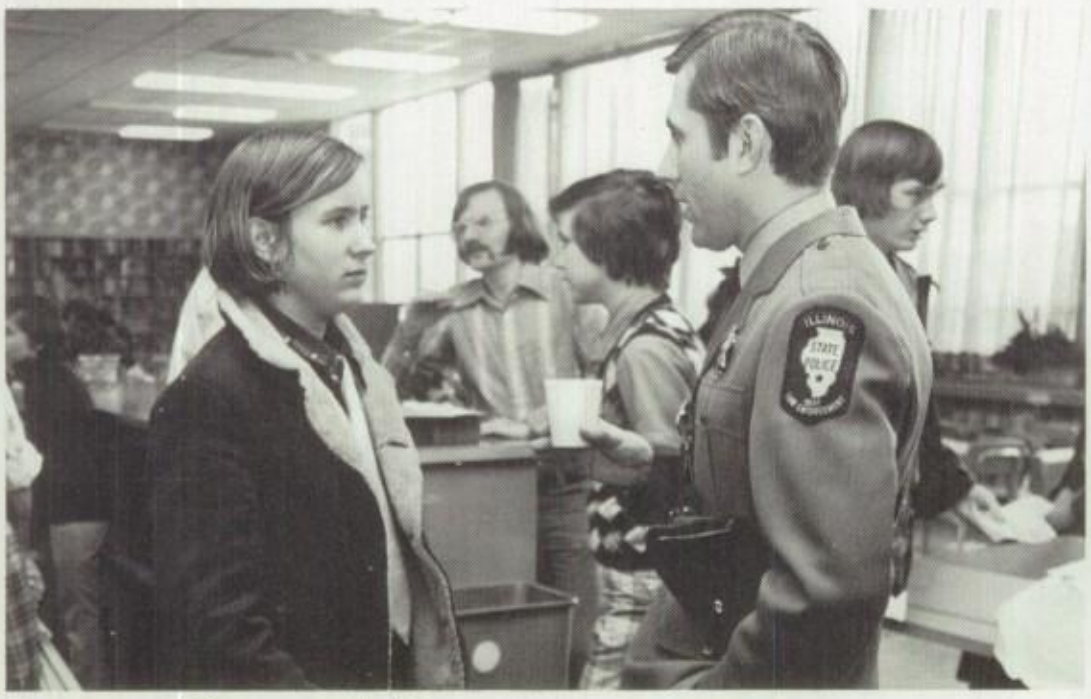
UNDERCLASSMEN

He won't like these kind of pictures.

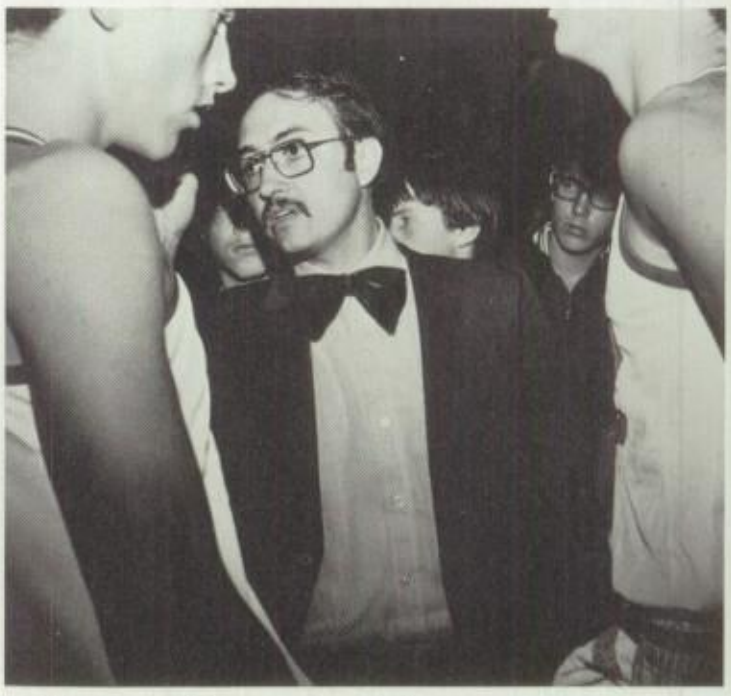
It doesn't bite . . . . . hard.

Go ahead, raise him.

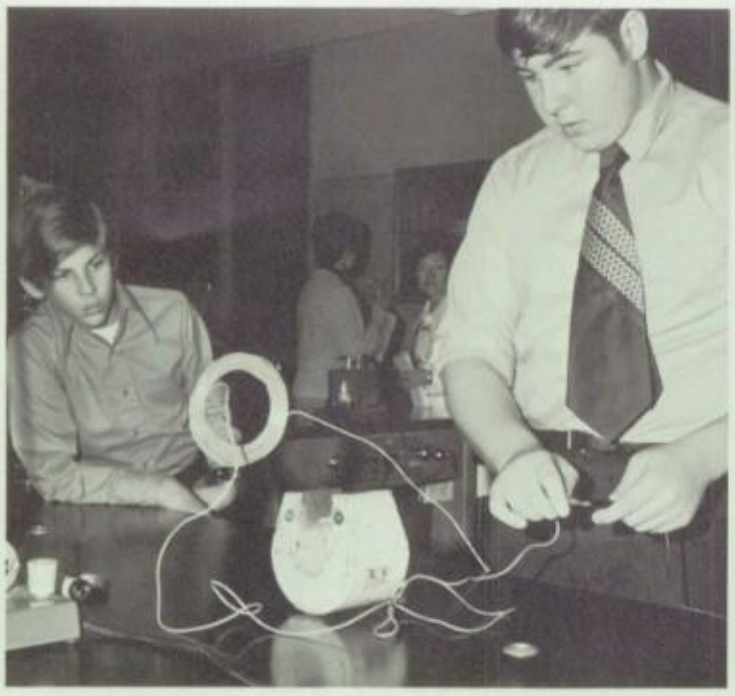
. . . . but mommy won't let me grow a beard.



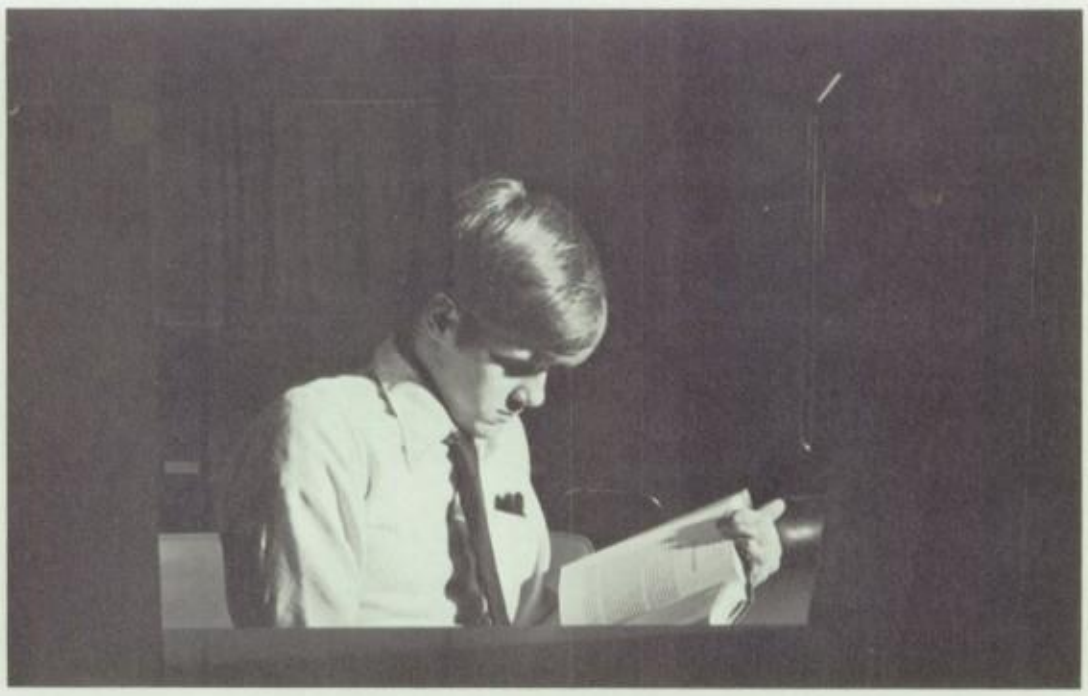
So you were soliciting on a public highway.



I told you guys this was a formal dance.

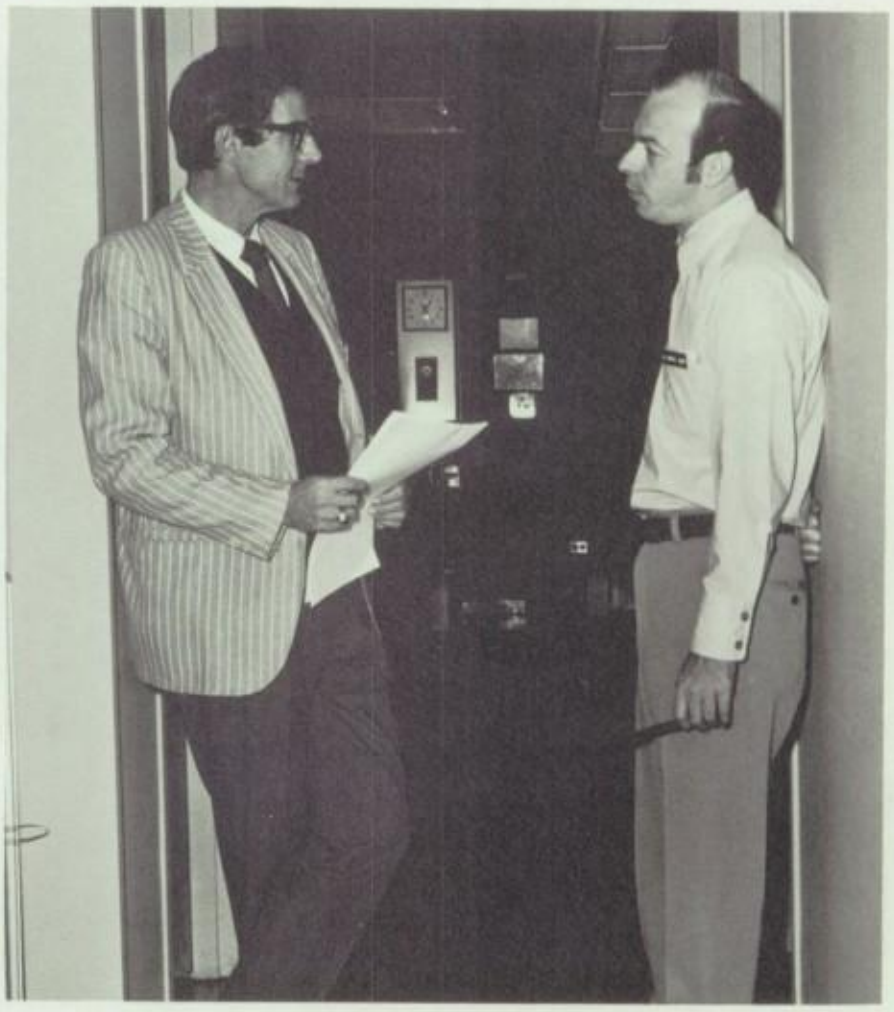


I wonder if I should have done that?



Here are the files, but where are the tapes?

My Hero!



Let's settle this outside.

"Mary had a little lamb . . . ."

Look Igor, I think we've done it.

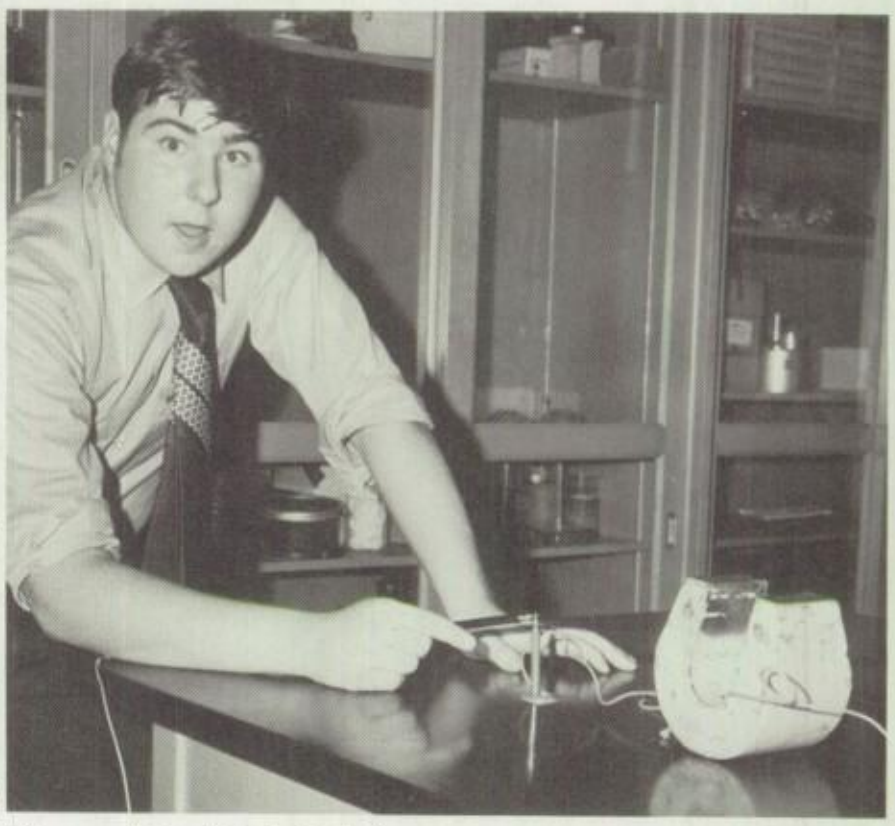
"I wonder how it would look in my nose?"

"A pinch of frog's feet and the left eye of an eel . . ."

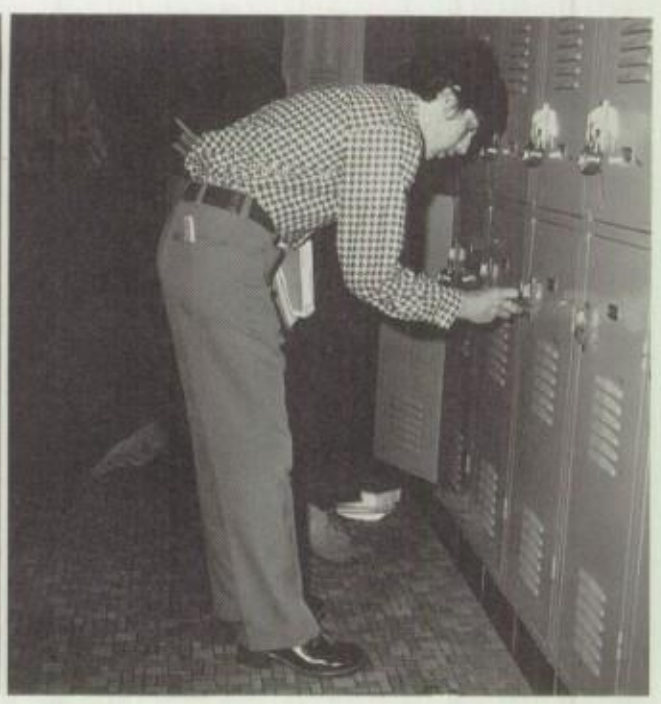
"Now, I just wave the wand and say the magic words . . ."



"Now, we just wait for lightening."

"Did you see that . . . it waved at me!"

"Let there be light!"



"The heck with it, I'll get a blue slip."

Another year has passed;
another book completed.
To us, the PLAINSMAN staff,
it has been more than just a book;
it has been a great experience.
We have learned that many are stronger than one.

The task was great;
maybe more than you realize;
long hours,
beating deadlines,
and keeping cool amidst hard work.
But we feel it was well worth it.

We share our work with you,
our Marist family.
We realize the success of this book, rests in the many moments and memories
we have shared this year.

Thanks—to you Marist students—who gave us the materials to work with and the support to carry on!

to Root Photographers—for their untiring and ever constant dedication to Marist.

to Brs. Ryan and Colella—for several prints, a great contribution!

to Louis Pellegrini—for several candids and two years service.

and finally to our faculty and administration for their cooperation.

The journey? We've just begun!

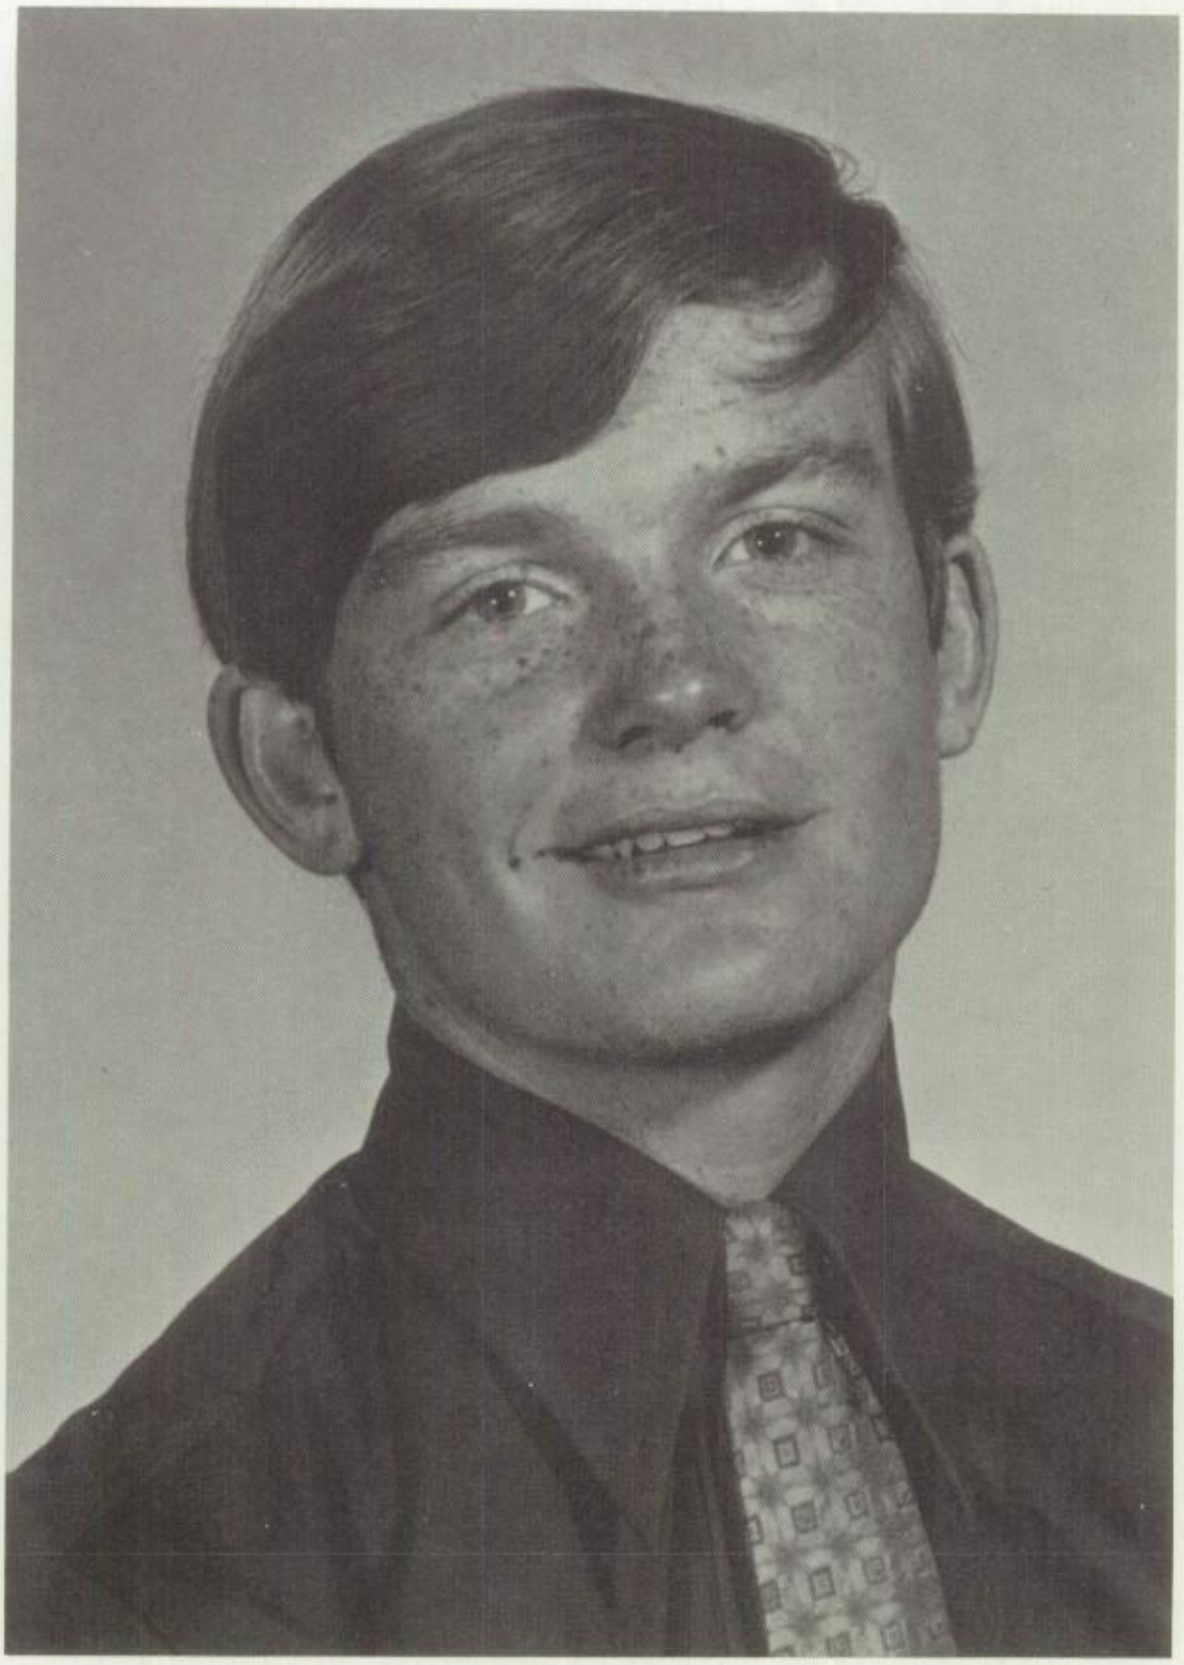
LIFE HAS NOT ENDED—MERELY CHANGED



MICHAEL J. DUGGAN

born into eternity
November 25, 1973

Michael you slipped out of us so suddenly.
Caught unaware we could not repeat again the things our love said silently so often.
Your resurrection in glory at fifteen was a joyful triumph.
We rejoice with you!
(G. M. Bruender)

Father we pray that nothing of Michael's life will be lost.
May it be of benefit to the world that all he held sacred may be respected by each of us.
May he go on living in us,
his family and friends,
in our hearts and minds,
in our courage and conscience.
(Bonella-Micano)
